

EVENT TOUR INTERNSHIP

Job Status: Internship

Reports to: Operations Director

Age: 18+

Internship dates: Nov. 8-20, 2017; January 2-April 1, 2018

Compensation: Unpaid, expenses on the road are covered

Department: Events

Updated: June 2017

Join the PULSE team for the internship of a lifetime!

Work behind-the-scenes on a national tour, earn the honorary title of road warrior, and be part of a team bringing the Gospel to hundreds of thousands through nightly stadium-sized events!

Primary Objective(s) of Position:

- Execute event each night with excellence.
- Educate attendees on PULSE and the Reset message.
- Mobilize individuals toward Together 2018.

Core Competencies:

- Ability to travel full-time during internship dates.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Technical aptitude to run Square Register and basic Mac programs.
- Ability to push, lift, and carry up to 50lbs and the ability to be on your feet for long periods of time.
- A good attitude. While being on the road is incredibly fun and your tour mates become family, days tend to be long and you'll be living on a tour bus so personal space/alone time is limited.
- Flexible, adaptable, and teachable.
- Demeanor, approach, and appearance reflects a level of professionalism and represents PULSE.

Key Responsibilities & Objectives:

- Work with the events team to successfully execute day to day tasks on the road, including set up and tear down of merchandise booth, ministry tools, and pastor gatherings.
- Run the merchandise booth during the event: keep track of sales, keep count of product, and promote Together 2018.
- Engage with volunteers, train them, and be available to answer questions as they arise.
- Learn what life on the road is like. Grow and improve each night's execution.
- Work well together as a part of a small, fun, and hardworking team.
- Complete a mid-semester evaluation and a final evaluation as part of the internship program.
- Engage in personal and team development opportunities presented by PULSE leadership.
- Perform any and all other duties as assigned by your supervisor.
